

CALIFORNIA DECLARATION

As required by California Health & Safety Code §§ 119400-119402, Ferring has established an annual dollar limit on educational or practice-related items, items of minimal value and meals which Ferring Field Based Employees are permitted to provide to medical or health professionals in California under Ferring policy. As of January 1, 2008, the annual limit of $2500 applies prospectively to educational or practice-related items, items of minimal value, and meals associated with informational presentations or discussions provided to medical or health professionals in California; and incorporate the limitations and definitions contained in the statute.
